

Ashur's Tears

By Bill Riley

Reviewed by D. Andrew McChesney

When their father is apparently killed in a plane crash, life for Toby and Katie Cypher suddenly changes. As they try to discover what happened, they enter a world of futuristic high tech, combined with what might be considered magic, dating back to ancient times. Author Bill Riley skillfully combines these elements into a gripping and compelling story. It's one that is hard to put down.

While written and marketed for younger readers, it is a tale that readers of all ages will enjoy. I did.
