Joe and Dave's father looks forward to his son's letters once a month. They make crazy mentions of lemons that confuse him and make him wonder what they are up to. It is the only way he knows what his boys are doing. Soon he gets notice his daughter-in-law and grandchild are missing. Will he ever get to see his family together again?

Joan has a number of writing projects in the works. Forthcoming novels include Whistle in the Wind and Pirate's Amulet. Short stories in work are: A Man Called Samuel, Sylvia and the Bigfoot, Dimensions of Fear, and The Complacent Wife Maybe. She is also writing a series of children's stories featuring Benny Longtail. In his adventures, Benny Builds a House, Builds a Playground, (celebrates) Christmas, Cooks Dinner, and more.

As more of her writing is published, it will be featured here.
