Julie Bergman

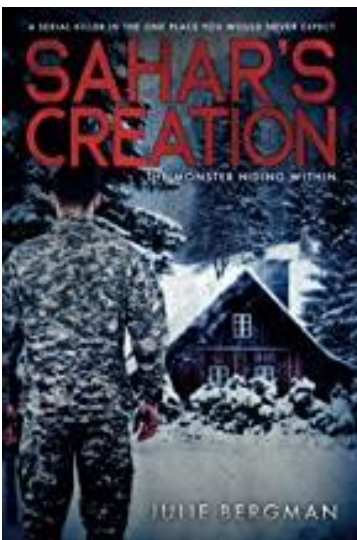

Julie Bergman is a retired military veteran who served her country for over 20 years. She lives in beautiful Spokane, Washington with her supportive husband, 4 wonderful children and a slobbery Olde English Bulldog with attitude. After over 17 years in the JAG Corp and a master's degree in Forensic Psychology, her fascination with crime and the dark side of humanity has spilled into a military based serial killer novel/series that you won't be able to put down.

Sahar's Creation

0578323656 B09N9D4Z2X

Sex, Drugs and a Serial Killer found in the one place you would never expect!

Air Force Sergeant Evelyn "Mac" McGregor spends most of her time defending airmen who commit petty crimes. When she lands her first murder case, it appears to be an isolated incident—but the more she digs, the more bodies she finds.

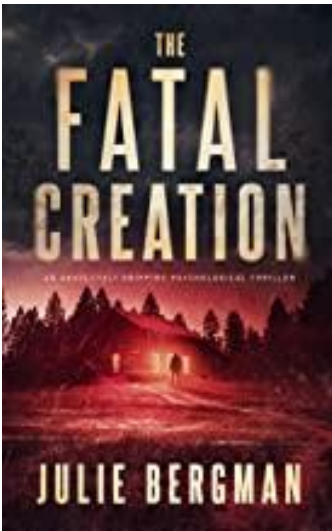

She teams up with the handsome First Sergeant Gavin Hudson to have a better shot at catching the killer, but their relationship soon turns into something more.

When Mac's career and personal life are sabotaged, she discovers that the killer will do anything to throw her off his scent. No one will believe her unless she can reveal the killer's true identity. But that will prove an even more dangerous task than she expects. Will she be able to save the killer's next victim and her career?

An unputdownable military thriller about a serial killer gone wild, Sahar's Creation is the first book in Sergeant Evelyn (Mac) McGregor series for mature adults. It's an adventure full of murder, military, legal thriller with law enforcement and a touch of erotica and romance to keep things exciting. If you like fast-paced suspense that'll keep you on the edge of your seat and female leads that never rest, then you'll love this book/series by author Julie Bergman.

A missing person case turns bloody when only parts of a dismembered body are discovered on the Mexican border.

Air Force Defense Investigator Sergeant Evelyn “Mac” McGregor is sent to Holloman Air Force Base on a missing person case, only to find herself up against a world she’s spent her life running from.

Mac links up with the El Paso police and FBI to hunt for the missing, only to find the ties to her past life run much deeper.

Her world is turned upside down when she uncovers the truth behind the string of disappearances that left the military community terrified. Now she must face what may be her biggest case ever.

Mac must stop the body count from rising. The only way to do that is to face the demons she’s kept buried from a childhood plagued by death and deception.

This suspenseful thriller has it all: a deranged killer, a military romance, kidnapping, and crime. The twists and turns will put you on the edge of your seat as Mac stops at nothing to profile and catch the killer.
