Kate Poitevin
Former Treasurer

Kate lives in Spokane, WA in a 120 yr. old fixer-upper with her daughter, two roommates, and kitties Doc and George. Born in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, she graduated from Coeur d'Alene High. After a two-year stint in New Jersey and one in Seattle, she returned home and eventually married. They settled in Spokane in 1980 amidst the Mt. St. Helen's fallout. They have three grown children, six grandchildren, two great-grandsons, and four granddaughters-by-choice. Kate is a member of the Tin Pencil Writers Group and Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers. She is a retired Regional Chieftain in the Irish Clan Cian and spent many years of summer weekends at Highland Games around the Pacific Northwest with her Celtic family and enjoys her memberships in Eastern Star and Amaranth. Finding herself single and on her own again after 40 years, she is embracing her new life, blessed to be surrounded by the best group of friends in the world.

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: The Unexpected Summer Adventure B077PPK6KJV 1986153959

When Taylor, Jordan, and Zach run after their little brother, Zayne, while on a family hike, they don't expect him to lead them through a portal into another world: Tir Gaeltacht. Guided by a young dragon, they start off on the adventure of a lifetime. Their cousin, who finds a portal of his own, soon joins them. They are surprised to find that their arrival has been anticipated by the inhabitants, and that they're expected to help save their world. Can the siblings - with the help of their bond-mates, a Dragon, a Gryffin, a Winged Horse, a White Stag, and a Giant Wolfe - overthrow the evil queen and restore the rightful ruler to the throne? And if they can do all that, will they ever be able to make it home?

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: Quests

B07PRL3P61 1986179456

Taylor, Jordan, Zach, Zayne, and their cousin, Gabe, have been in Tir Gaeltacht-the magical world they unexpectedly stumbled into-for six days now, and they each have their own missions. Jordan has harnessed her rare healing powers and is helping travelers on their way to New Tara with her winged horse bond-mate, Rosa, while the boys and their bond-mates must embark upon the quests given to them by the Arch Mage Fergus. All signs point to an impending battle at New Tara for the very fate of Tir Gaeltacht, and the children and their new friends prepare for the war that they must win if they ever hope to return home.

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: Battle for New Tara

B07PPJP2FQ 1986179923

Taylor, Jordan, Zach, and Zayne, and their cousin, Gabe, ready themselves to fight for the fate of Tir Gaeltacht—the magical world they unexpectedly stumbled into eleven days ago—and they each have a key role to play. They and their bond-mates have traveled far and stand ready with the friends they've met along the way to siege New Tara and restore the rightful king to the throne. But it won't be easy. A powerful sorceress controls the castle; she has cast an evil blight upon the land and she commands its darkest creatures. Can the children win back the kingdom and all make it safely back home?

Saving Tir Gaeltacht was originally published as a single volume. It has since been reissued as the above three volume set. It's the same story broken down into three volumes of more manageable length. The three books are available via Amazon and in local Spokane area bookstores.
