Larry Danek

Larry Danek was born and raised in western Pennsylvania where he did many boyish things. Some of those included hunting, fishing, camping and trapping. He was an ardent reader and enjoyed a variety of books. After high school and four years in the Air Force, he found work in manufacturing before getting an opportunity in the computer field. He worked as a service tech for twenty-eight years before progressing to software support. It became possible for him to really put his heart into writing after a series of health problems prevented him from continuing to work. He is member of the Spokane Authors and Self Publishers, and has book signings and speaking engagements in the Spokane area. Books by Larry Danek include; I'm A Ghost in This Body (the first in the Nomadic Ghost series), Ghostly Reunion and the just published Runaway Ghost (the second and third volumes of the Nomadic Ghost series). His first novel is Jed's World. All are available on Amazon and Kindle, and in various local Spokane book stores.

George Martin expected to join his wife in the hereafter but as luck would have it, he was given the chance to start over in a new world.
