

Spokane Authors & Self-Publishers Member Web-Page

Stephen D. Lalonde

Stephen Lalonde is a retired teacher. He has a diverse employment history including truck and combine driver, lifeguard, custodian, mechanic, machinist, franchise developer, car salesman, musician, electronics technician, Scouting executive, teacher and union president. His primary occupation for 29 years was high school teacher. All of these occupations influence his writing.

He earned his BA in Education in 1972, Masters in Electronic Communications 1976, and his MA in Education in 1988. He lives in Spokane Valley with his wife, Audrey.

Visit Stephen's web-site at: www.stephenlalonde.us

Continue below for information about Stephen's books. All books are available via <https://www.ouranianpublishing.com> Some are available on Amazon with ASIN provided.

The Phoenix Gift

B07KGMSBDJ

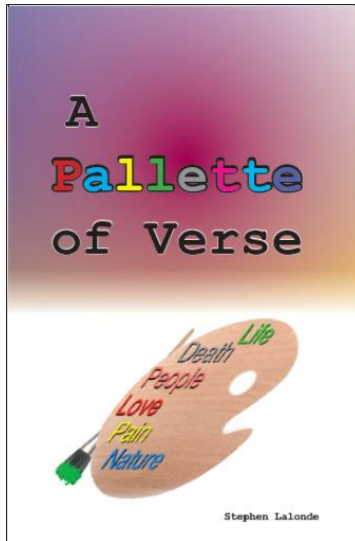

Mary doesn't realize at first that she is a rebel looking for a cause. Her teenage daughter and son don't need as much of her time so she takes on the regular visit to her father-in-law who has advanced cancer and Alzheimer's. When she realizes that he is going to die with no significant memory of living she decides to research his life in an effort to give it back to him before he passes. In the process Mary discovers something that changes her life.

Also available at Auntie's Bookstore (Spokane, WA)
ISBN 978-1-944782-14-6

A Palette of Verse

B01NCJ8IP7

A collection of poems by Stephen Lalonde.

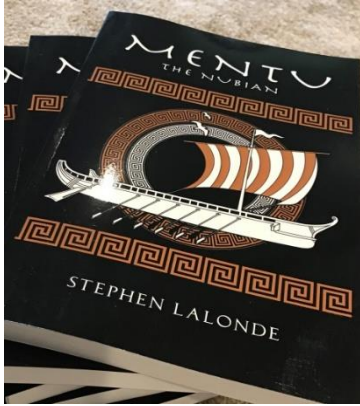

Also available at Auntie's Bookstore (Spokane, WA)
ISBN 978-1-944783-78-5

Sinon of Kirra

When sixteen-year-old Sinon, goes to Delphi to ask the Oracle what his future will be, he is challenged by the Pythia to retrieve a legendary artifact from the end of the Black Sea. Sinon struggles with the decision to accept the challenge, finally deciding to do as the Oracle had pronounced. He takes his Nubian servant, Mentu, with him, and together they face the trials and tribulations of the physical journey as well as the emotional journey of moving from boys to men.

Mentu the Nubian

In this sequel to SINON OF KIRRA, Mentu, a newly freed slave, acquires a merchant ship, the Cyrene, and sets sail as the ship's captain for the very first time.

Among his crewmates is his best friend, former master, and brother-in-arms, Sinon, who agrees to work on Mentu's ship for one year as they navigate dangerous seas, fight bloodthirsty pirates, thieves, and trade among the ports and harbors of Greece.

Anissi

In the series following SINON OF KIRRA and MENTU THE NUBIAN, Anissi barely escapes death and witnesses the abduction of her son, and total destruction of her village. Driven by an unbridled rage, she becomes a deadly warrior. With the help of two girls who saved her from the clutches of death, she exacts revenge against the invaders who destroyed her life.

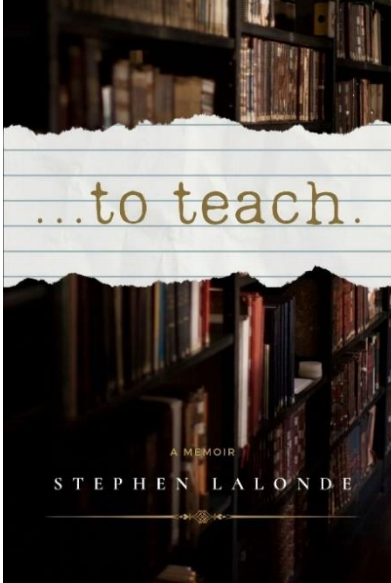

Now, Anissi vows to find her son, Mentu, and secure his freedom from slavery.

Strymon

Strymon's life is a mystery, even to him. From a strange beginning, a powerful woman helps him to see the world as he pursues the life of a sailor. He finds ways to earn the admiration of those around him as he travels the world and grows in wisdom through his adventures. Strymon makes one decision that continues to haunt him through the years. He is stunned to find that a prophecy involves him in one of many strange twists that transform his life: a life that profoundly affect so many others.

To Teach (coming soon)

In this compelling blend of memoir and treatise into the art and science of teaching, '...to teach' offers readers an intimate journey through the profound experiences of award-winning educator, Stephen Lalonde.

Spanning four decades of dedicated service in the public school system, Lalonde's memoir is a reflective and thought-provoking narrative that delves into the heart of teaching and learning. As he shares the invaluable lessons he learned along the way, readers are treated to an exploration of not just the methods and strategies that define a successful teacher, but the profound impact that a lifelong commitment to education can have on one's perspective on life.

This book is a testament to the enduring power of education and the transformative experience of a teacher who has dedicated his life to shaping the minds and hearts of generations.

Spokane Authors & Self-Publishers

Page revised 01/08

/2024 dam

©2018 www.spokaneauthors.org