Tiffani Harvey, a life-long resident of Washington, was born with multiple disabilities, and has had many family members with other disabilities. She's married and has two children. Tiffani has written four books and is considering writing a fictional story based off of someone else's life. Her philosophies, "People with disabilities can do anything they set their mind to," and "Learn all you can before you choose."

"I started writing my first book in 1998 with the intention of using my book as a tool, not to sell it. I had never heard of an independent author or self-publishing. It has taken this long for me to realize this."

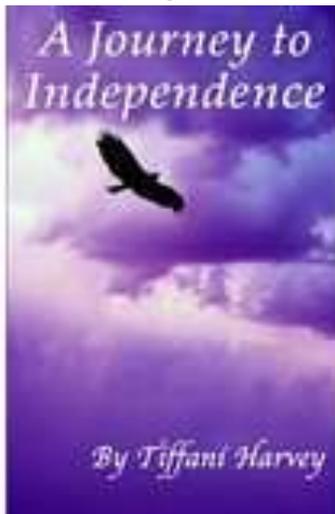

Tiffani is a member of Toastmasters Moonlighters that meets Thursdays from 5:45-7:00 pm and will start meeting live and on Zoom.
